

Mr. Anders Hasselager

Senior Project Manager,
Gate 21.

Session Title: Bangladesh's Energy Economy as Keynote Paper Presenter.

Mr. Anders Hasselager is currently Senior Project Manager at Gate 21 since August 2016. As a Senior Project Manager he coordinates investments and municipal planning in an overall strategic energy plan for the region. He previously has experience to work as Senior Policy Advisor at the Danish Energy Authority. He also held this position at the Danish Energy Agency, Ministry of Climate & Energy and at Energistyrelsen. He has Extensive professional experience in managing bilateral cooperation and sector programmes- and projects within energy, environment and climate. Demonstrated experience in sustainable development, green transition, policy development and procedures and commercialization of technologies including business development. Experience in multilateral and bilateral negotiations and creating public-private platforms in order to demonstrate and facilitate cooperation on low carbon energy systems. Strong negotiation skills from dealing with Governments, regional- and local authorities and municipalities on strategic energy policy, institutional development and capacity building. Detailed knowledge on financial administration, budgeting, planning, procurement, monitoring and evaluation of projects. Specific experience from bilateral cooperation with EU-member countries, Eastern European Countries and the BRICS. Skilled in Logical Framework Analysis and Theory of Change.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/anders-hasselager-41ab04>