

Wendy Jo Werner

Country Manager for Bangladesh, Bhutan & Nepal, IFC, WBG.

Session Title: Bangladesh's Energy Economy

Wendy Werner is International Finance Corporation (IFC)'s Country Manager for Bangladesh, Bhutan and Nepal, based in Dhaka. She is responsible for overseeing and developing IFC's strategy, managing client relationships and delivering IFC's business in the three countries.

Prior to moving to the South Asia region, Ms. Werner was the Manager for Trade and Competitiveness Advisory Services for the East Asia Pacific region. Under her leadership, the portfolio focused on improving the investment climate, strengthening competitiveness in Agribusiness and regional trade and investment policy in more than 15 countries across the region.

Wendy holds a BA from Grinnell College in Iowa, USA and an MBA and MA from George Washington University; she is a CFA Charter-holder and an active CFA Institute volunteer.