Dhaka Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Dhaka Chamber of Commerce & Industry (DCCI) incorporated under Companies Act, in the year 1958, is the largest and most vibrant Chamber of the country. It has been a pioneer in rendering service for the development of private sector business and industry in Bangladesh for over six decades. DCCI represents more than 38 categories of small, medium and large entrepreneurs contributing towards development of economy and employment generation.

Objectives and Functions of DCCI

DCCI aims to promote trade, investment and industrialization in the country. It has proven record of contribution towards the development of business sector of Bangladesh. Some of the important functions of DCCI are:

- ★ To give market oriented inputs for formulation and implementation of government policies in respect of import, export, industry, investment, banking, insurance, fiscal measures and annual budget etc;
- ★ To prepare materials for various conferences relating to WTO, UNCTAD, SAPTA, SAFTA, BIMSTEC, D-8 and TIPS-OIC etc;
- ★ To represent trade, commerce and industry on various advisory or consultative committees at different ministries and departments of the government;
- ★ To comment on national and international legislative measures affecting trade, commerce and industry;
- ★ To function as a forum for exchanging views on trade and economy among different Chamber members, Government agencies, DCCI members and local or foreign business delegations;
- ★ To disseminate business related information to the members;

- ★ To publish trade and investment related information, research report analysis on a monthly or yearly basis;
- ★ To organize training courses, seminars/workshops/symposium, trade delegations, trade fairs and participation thereof at home and abroad;
- ★ To undertake activities like survey, research etc. for suggesting favourable trade and investment policies;
- ★ To prepare Economic Policy Papers (EPPs) for conducting policy advocacy for the benefit of the business sector;
- ★ To sign Memorandum of Understanding (MoUs) with overseas Chambers and other business organizations for bridging bilateral trade and investment;
- ★ To prepare, implement and evaluate projects for entrepreneurship development and to deliver time bound, need-based and diversified services to the business community;
- ★ To help women entrepreneurs to promote and expand their businesses.

Services

Dhaka Chamber also provides services like; business information, documentation, issuing CO, organizing B2B, organizing trade fair, assistance in RJSC registration, CCI&E incorporation, etc. The Chamber's aim is to provide opportunities to its members which otherwise would have been almost beyond their reach.

DCCI's services also cover training courses, seminars, webinars, workshops, dialogues, discussion meetings, international conferences, press meets and different types of publications. Members are kept updated with all important notifications/circulars/Trade policy issued by the Government, Regulatory Bodies.
